RULE 10.5                    POLICY CONCERNING USE OF COURT FACILITIES, FILES, DOCUMENTS AND EXHIBITS IN TRIALS OR PROCEEDINGS HEARD BY A PRIVATE JUDGE

For the purposes of this local rule the term "private judge" includes any attorney or retired judge sitting as a judge pro tem arranged privately between the parties to the litigation. A private judge hearing, trial or proceeding is a hearing, trial or proceeding in which all expenses are born by the litigants.

A. Stipulation must include waiver of clerk's minutes: Any stipulation for private judge must include a waiver for the necessity of clerk's minutes. B. Documents to be filed by the private judge: The private judge shall have the responsibility for filing with the clerk of the court, notices setting hearings, interim rulings, the statement of decision or final judgment and (where applicable) notices of any post trial proceedings.

C. In the event of appeal: The clerk of the court has the responsibility to provide the clerk's transcript and exhibits to the appellate court. Parties requesting a reporter's transcript shall have the responsibility to notify the reporter of a designation of the record or request for preparation of the reporter's transcript, and to submit these documents to the clerk of the court for filing with copies provided directly to the reporter. The parties are responsible for arranging transcript preparation, correction, certification, and filing with the Court of Appeal.

[Effective 7/1/01]

RULE 10.6                    SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATIONS OF LOCAL RULES

RULE 10.7                    SUBSECTION DELETED [Effective 7/1/11]*RULE 10.8                    EX PARTE ORDERS

Further, failure to timely request a noticed motion must not have been due to any failure or lack of diligence on the part of the requesting attorney or party. [Effective 7/1/02]

All ex parte requests, including a request for orders shortening or extending time, for temporary relief or other requests will be heard only with a scheduled appointment except in cases of emergency. Appointments will be scheduled through the office of the clerk of the appropriate Court. On appearance, attorneys and/or parties requesting the order shall present a written application to the clerk of the Court accompanied by sufficient declarations and/or points and authorities to support the order, and the proposed order.

Notice shall be given to all parties within the time limits set forth in CRC 3.1203. All ex parte applications shall comply with CRC 3.1204 and must include a written declaration setting forth details of the notice given to other parties (date, time, place of notice, to whom notice was given) or why notice could not be given. In cases where less than 6 business hours notice is given, the declaration shall state facts to justify such shortened notice. H. Documents not received for filing within the statutory time limits, before a scheduled hearing, shall be filed and endorsed at the clerk's office and an endorsed copy shall be delivered by the attorney or self-represented litigant to the courtroom where the hearing is scheduled. [Effective 1/1/08]

I. Transcripts of depositions shall not be filed or lodged within the Court file without prior order of the Court. In civil cases, transcripts of Court proceedings, unless ordered prepared by the Court, will not be lodged within the Court file nor filed by the clerk without prior order of the Court.

J. Except for noncompliance with CRC 2.100 et seq, these local rules of Court, or failure to pay the filing fee without a Court order waiving the fee, a complaint must be filed on demand and cannot be refused. However, any obvious discrepancy will be pointed out to the filing party so that the error can be corrected prior to filing. Once filed, any corrections must proceed by amendment or Court order; a party cannot alter papers to correct mistakes once the complaint is filed with the Court. Unsigned complaints shall not be filed without Court order. [Effective 7/1/07]

K. No answer or other responsive pleading shall be refused for filing except for:

Documents placed in the pickup box are expected to be claimed within thirty (30) days of being placed therein. P. The clerk's office will only accept one (1) original document for the file and two (2) copies to conform on each document. Parties should be encouraged to take their conformed copies and make photocopies. [Effective 7/1/02]

C. Referral to Arbitration. When a case is referred to judicial arbitration, the Court will set a deadline for the completion of arbitration. The deadlines for filing of the arbitration award and a request for trial de novo shall be governed by the appropriate statute. Failure to timely file a request for trial de novo shall result in entry of judgment based on the arbitration award and vacation of the mandatory settlement conference and trial dates. Failure to meet and confer as required herein may result in the matter being delayed, or postponed, or dropped from calendar, or sanctions or other remedies imposed in the court's discretion.

C. Meet and Confer Rule for Parties Subject to Restraining Orders

This meet and confer rule does not require the parties themselves to meet and confer personally if there are any restraining orders, issued by any court whatsoever, requiring one party to “not contact” or “stay away” from any other party to the same action, if such restraining orders are in effect at the time of the law and motion proceeding. However, the parties’ attorneys, if any, must meet and confer as stated herein, and any party representing himself or herself must meet and confer with the opposing party’s attorney, if the opposing party is represented. At the hearing, the court may in its discretion order the parties themselves to meet and confer under conditions that the court deems appropriate.

D. This meet and confer rule does not apply, except as stated in the immediately preceding paragraph, to moving papers that are filed under or concern:

(i) The Domestic Violence Prevention Act (Family Code §§ 6200 – 6409, as plead in Judicial Council forms DV-100 through DV-810);

(ii) Civil harassment actions (Code of Civil Procedure § 527.6, as plead in Judicial Council forms CH-100 through CH-151);

(iii) Workplace violence (Code of Civil Procedure § 527.8, as plead in Judicial Council forms WV-100 through WV-150); or,

(iv) Elder or dependent adult abuse (Welfare and Institutions Code §15657.03, as plead in Judicial Council forms EA-100 through EA-150).

E. All litigants must be provided with the court’s standard form Meet And Confer Orders (Placer County Local Form no. PL-FL011) as in effect at the time of the proceeding, as said standard form may be amended from time to time. A copy of the standard form Meet and Confer Orders shall also be included in any moving papers served on a litigant in any family law matter.

F. This rule does not apply to moving papers that are filed by the Department of Child Support Services (“DCSS”), so long as the DCSS has and uses adequate “meet and confer” procedures of its own that meet the purposes of these mandatory meet and confer requirements as required by the assigned judicial officer for DCSS cases.

- D. Notwithstanding Local Rule 30.17(A), 30.17(B), and 30.17(C), a judicial officer may authorize a telephonic appearance without using the court's telephonic appearance service. This would be a direct telephone call made by the courtroom clerk to the party at the time the matter is called for hearing.

- E. Notwithstanding Local Rule 30.17(A), 30.17(B), 30.17(C), and 30.17(D), the court may order personal appearance of a party at any time.

Rule 40.5 is adopted in compliance with Penal Code section 1203.10 and County of Placer v. Superior Court (Stoner) (2005) 130 Cal.App.4th 807, to define the process used to discover non-confidential contents of a defendant's criminal case file maintained by the Placer County Probation Department.

A. A defendant shall have the right to discover the non-confidential portions of his or her criminal case file(s) maintained by the Placer County Probation Department under the following circumstances:

1. The defendant must be pending either new criminal charges or a violation of probation.
2. The procedures in this rule apply only to the discovery of adult criminal files. The procedure for discovery of juvenile case files will be as defined in Welfare and Institutions Code section 827.

3. The procedures in this rule apply only to the discovery of the defendant's personal file(s). Discovery of files of other persons shall be governed by traditional rules and procedures.

B. The defendant and probation department are to observe the following procedure:

1. The request to review a file must be initiated by the defendant. The request must be in writing, but may be informal such as by FAX or memo, but shall reasonably identify the information being sought.
2. The probation department will have three (3) days to review the file to determine whether any of the requested information is confidential to the defendant and should not be disclosed.
3. The file(s) will be made available for review at the offices of the Placer County Probation Department, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.
4. The probation department will copy any non-confidential portions of the file(s) as requested by the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the copies at the rate authorized by Placer County code.

If the probation department determines that any portion of a file is confidential, the defendant shall be advised of the general nature of the information being withheld and the basis for considering it confidential. If the defendant wishes to contest the claim of confidentiality, the defendant must calendar a formal discovery motion with the Court. The Court will conduct an in camera review of the documents at issue to determine whether they are within the scope of the request for discovery and whether they are confidential. The Court will have the discretion to determine what documentation should be released and whether the release should be subject to a protective order. If either the probation department or the defendant disagrees with the Court's decision, such party may seek appropriate appellate review.

C. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to limit the obligation of the Placer County Probation Department to disclose material that is exculpatory in nature.

EXHIBIT B

RULE 40.7                    DECLARATION OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The following rule is to guide the Court and counsel regarding the circumstances under which a conflict of interest is to be declared concerning the representation of a criminal defendant.

A.     Application of the Rule: The conflicts rule shall be applicable to declarations of conflict by any appointed counsel, whether such counsel is the Placer County Public Defender, Conflicts Firm, or private attorney appointed by the Court.

B.     Construction of Rule: Whenever possible, consistent with legal ethics and the fundamental right of any criminal defendant to be represented by counsel who is free of conflicts of interest, this rule shall be liberally construed to avoid a declaration of conflict so as to give full and appropriate effect to contractual arrangements between the County of Placer and appointed counsel.

C.     Multiple Defendant Cases:

1.     Counsel appointed by the Court shall not represent different defendants involved in the same or related criminal conduct, whether or not the defendants are separately or jointly charged.

2.     Privately retained counsel shall not represent multiple defendants charged in the same criminal proceeding unless a full and knowledgeable waiver is obtained from each defendant in writing and orally in open court after inquiry by the Court.

3.     Declarations of conflict in multiple defendant cases may be made by any attorney without the prior approval of a supervising attorney.

4.     Whenever a conflict is declared, to the extent possible, the Public Defender shall retain the client having the more serious or complex case from that of the Conflicts Firm; the Conflicts Firm shall retain the client having the more serious or complex case from that of private appointed counsel.

D.     Conflicts with Current Clients:

1.     Counsel appointed by the Court shall not represent a defendant where an adverse witness or victim is a client currently being represented by such counsel. For the purposes of this rule, “currently being represented” means:

a.     A client who has an active, pending charge or violation of probation,

b.     A defendant for whom counsel is actively seeking post-judgment relief, or

c.     Counsel currently is counsel of record for a minor in a juvenile delinquency or dependency proceeding, whether or not there currently is a pending petition in such juvenile proceeding.

2. Absent unusual circumstances, the fact that counsel represents a witness supporting the defendant will not disqualify counsel from representing the defendant.

3. A declaration of conflict under this section shall require the approval of a senior or supervising attorney.

E. Former Clients as Witnesses or Victims:

1. A declaration of conflict shall not be made merely from the fact that a former client is a victim or witness in the current action.

2. A declaration of conflict may be made if all of the following circumstances are present:

a. Counsel is in possession of confidential information concerning the former client. "Confidential information" does not include information that is part of the public record or may readily be obtained by opposing counsel, such as records of conviction, employment and school records.

b. The confidential information is relevant to the current proceeding.

c. Counsel will or may be called upon to use the confidential information against the former client in the defense of the client in the current case.

3. A declaration of conflict under this section shall require the approval of a senior or supervising attorney.

(a) Declaration of Conflict in Other Circumstances:

(1) Merely because a conflict existed in the past does not mean that there is a conflict in the current case. Each case is to be evaluated as to current conflicts. It is presumed, for example, that the Public Defender shall represent a defendant on a current probation violation, even though there had been a conflict in representation on the original case.

(2) Counsel may declare a conflict in the following additional cases:

aa. Where there is a substantial appearance of conflict. Examples of such circumstances include former clients who were frequently represented by counsel, or cases where the former client has had a recent and substantial case with counsel.

bb. Where a witness or victim is a member of the office staff of counsel or a member of such staff's family. Merely having knowledge of or acquaintance with the witness or victim shall not be grounds for a declaration of conflict of the entire office of counsel, but may warrant re-assignment of the case within counsel's firm.

cc. Where a former client seeks to set aside a conviction and there is a colorable claim of ineffective assistance of counsel. "Colorable claim" means one which would credibly establish the possibility that the prior counsel had failed to perform with reasonable diligence and that, in absence of counsel's failings, the conviction would not have resulted. The colorability of the claim may be determined in a procedure generally in the style of a Marsden motion.

dd. Suit against counsel by the current client unless the suit is patently frivolous, the suit is based on grounds already determined by the Court in a Marsden motion to be without merit, and there is no conflict of interest other than as reflected in the suit. (People v. Horton (1995) 11 Cal.4th 1068, 1104-1107.)

ee. Any other circumstance where counsel reasonable believes a conflict should be declared.

(3) A declaration of conflict under this section shall require the approval of a senior or supervising attorney.

F. When a conflict is declared:

1. Conflicts shall be declared as soon as discovered.
2. Notice of the declaration of conflict made by the Public Defender shall be immediately given to the Conflicts Firm, including a brief explanation of the nature of the conflict.
3. Counsel shall safeguard any confidential information obtained from a client to avoid any unnecessary "contamination" of other counsel.
4. The file, absent any confidential information, shall promptly be given to the next appointed counsel. The following procedure shall be used when conflicts are discovered in cases in any department: If the conflict is declared in open court with Conflicts counsel present, the file shall be exchanged in open court. If Conflicts counsel is not present, the file shall be deposited in a box for that purpose located in the clerk's office for the department. [Effective 7/1/08]

5. Whenever a conflict appears possible, particularly in a multiple defendant cases, counsel will conduct themselves in a manner to minimize conflicts in any realignment of counsel.
6. When a conflict is declared, the new attorney generally will assume representation of the client in all pending matters, even though no conflict exists as to the other matters.

The Court shall inquire into the circumstances of the conflict, including, if necessary, holding proceedings in camera. Counsel, however, shall not be required to disclose confidential information, even to the Court. [Effective 7/1/08]
